

BIG QUESTION

Are all religions true?

GOD STORY

Paul Preaches in Athens (Acts 17:16–34)

KEY VERSE

Don't worry about anything. No matter what happens, tell God about everything.
(Philippians 4:6a, NIRV)

1 | Conversation Starter

SUPPLIES

- None

INSTRUCTIONS

- To lead into today's teaching, discuss:
 - Do you have any friends or know people from our community who celebrate different holidays than we do? If so, which holidays do they celebrate?
 - Do you know anything about what they're honouring on those holidays?
- Point out that some holidays are part of specific religions.
- Introduce this week's Big Question: Are all religions true?

2 | Watch

SUPPLIES

- Media player

INSTRUCTIONS

- Watch this week's video from the Now Playing Kids playlist on the One Story YouTube channel.

3 | Discuss

SUPPLIES

- None

INSTRUCTIONS

- Review and discuss the video teaching:
 - What stood out to you in today's Life Story? How about the God Story?
 - What's the Key Verse for the Campfire series? (Philippians 4:6a)

4 | Activity

SUPPLIES

- Bible
- Paul in Athens Comic activity pages
- Drawing materials

TIP

- Open a Bible to Acts 17, so the kids can refer to today's God Story if needed.

INSTRUCTIONS

- Review the activity page together.
- Encourage the kids to draw a comic of today's story about Paul.
- When they're done, chat about the reflection questions on the page.

5 | Pray

SUPPLIES

- Prayer sticks

INSTRUCTIONS

- Explain that we can love people of all religions even though we believe God is the one true God and that Jesus is the way to him. We should love our neighbours, whether they're Buddhist, Hindu, Jewish, Muslim, atheist, and so on.
- Tell the kids that you're going to pray together for people from other religions.
- Give a stick to each person in your family. If needed, assign them more than one stick or share the sticks.
- Guide the kids to take turns praying, "Dear God, please help and be with our [religion printed on their stick] neighbours."
- To wrap up, pray that your family will show the love of Jesus to all!