

My Story

1 | Intro Activity

SUPPLIES

- Scrap paper
- Pens

INSTRUCTIONS

- Divide the students into two teams.
- Guide the teams to stand in parallel lines facing each other.
- Write the name of someone from both teams on a piece of scrap paper. Keep the names hidden.
- Instruct each team to select a guesser. They will take turns trying to figure out whose name from the opposing team is on the paper. The guessers will ask questions that the leader can answer with a "Yes" or "No". Anyone from the other team who is not described by the answer should sit down on the floor to help with the process of elimination. For example, if a guesser asks whether the person has red hair and the leader answers "No," then anyone on the opposing team who has red hair would sit down.
- Whichever guesser chooses the correct name first gets a point for their team.
- For the next round, write down new names and choose new guessers. Play as long as time allows.
