

Scenario #1

Tara has a best friend named Katie, and they belong to the same youth group. Katie has been talking behind Tara's back in some pretty bad ways. Everyone but Tara knows. You are part of their group of friends. What do you think "God's way" is in this situation? What kinds of things do you think about when you try to follow God's way?

Look up and read Matthew 18:15-16. How does that help you answer the question? What would this look like in the situation mentioned above?

Scenario #2

Friends at school have started telling some pretty bad jokes – the kind you wouldn't repeat to your grandma. Your friends have made fun of you for not laughing at the jokes. You feel like you really shouldn't laugh, but you don't want to get made fun of. What do you do?

Look up and read Ephesians 5:4-9. How does that help you or challenge you?

Scenario #3

You were at the movies and found an envelope with $500 under your seat. You dream about all of the things you could do with that cash. You also consider what it would be like if it was yours and you had lost it. In truth, what do you do? What would be God's way of handling the situation?

Look up and read Matthew 7:12. How does that help you or challenge you?

Scenario #4

Your teacher has been treating your class really harsh. He's been almost mean to some students in your class. You feel frustrated by the injustice of it all. What would you do? What do you think would be God's way to respond?

Look up and read Matthew 5:43-44. How does that help you or challenge you?
