

Did You Know...

In certain countries around the world it is against the law to be a Christian and something as simple as owning a Bible can get you sent to jail?

In many of these countries, Christians gather in friends' homes for home church. They study the Bible, talk about Jesus, sing, and pray together.

Why do you think they do this?

Did You Know...

On the continent of Africa, the average church service is approximately 4 hours.
What do you think these church services are like?
