God's Promise to Jacob | Genesis 28:10-22

Jacob was on a long journey. One night after the sun went down, he lay down to sleep and put a stone under his head like a pillow.

Jacob had a dream. In his dream, there was a stairway that started from the earth and went all the way into heaven. There were angels going up and down the stairs.

God stood at the top of the stairway and said to Jacob,

"I am the God of your grandpa, Abraham, and of your dad, Isaac. I am giving you and your family the ground that you are lying on. Your family will have so many people in it and they will spread out in all directions. All families of the earth will be blessed through your family. I am with you and I will protect you wherever you go. And I will not finish until I give you everything I have promised you."

God said this because God keeps his promises.

When Jacob woke up he said, "What an awesome place this is! God is here!" Then Jacob took the stone he had used as his pillow and stood it up like a pillar. Jacob went and got some oil, and poured it on the pillar to show that this was a very special place. He named the place "Bethel," and in another language that means, "House of God."

Then Jacob prayed a special prayer to God. He said, "God be with me and watch over me. Give me food to eat and clothes to wear. Please do what you have promised and you will be my God. This stone is a special stone and will be a place to worship you. And I will give you a tenth of everything you give me."
